Venue Synopsis

The dual-level San Jose Civic completed a $15 million renovation in 2011 enhancing the experience of this historic venue with modern upgrades. The Civic is an easy fit for a full range of events including general sessions, small meetings, evening galas, banquet dinners, cocktail receptions, performing arts events and more. Patrons enjoy new, customized fixed seating, state-of-the-art sound and HD video systems, renovated and expanded restrooms, increased concession areas and a new 3-story elevator.

The San Jose Civic partners with professional promoters to showcase it as a must-play venue for top acts touring the West Coast. With an intimate view from every seat, it is an ideal location for popular entertainers and public figures.

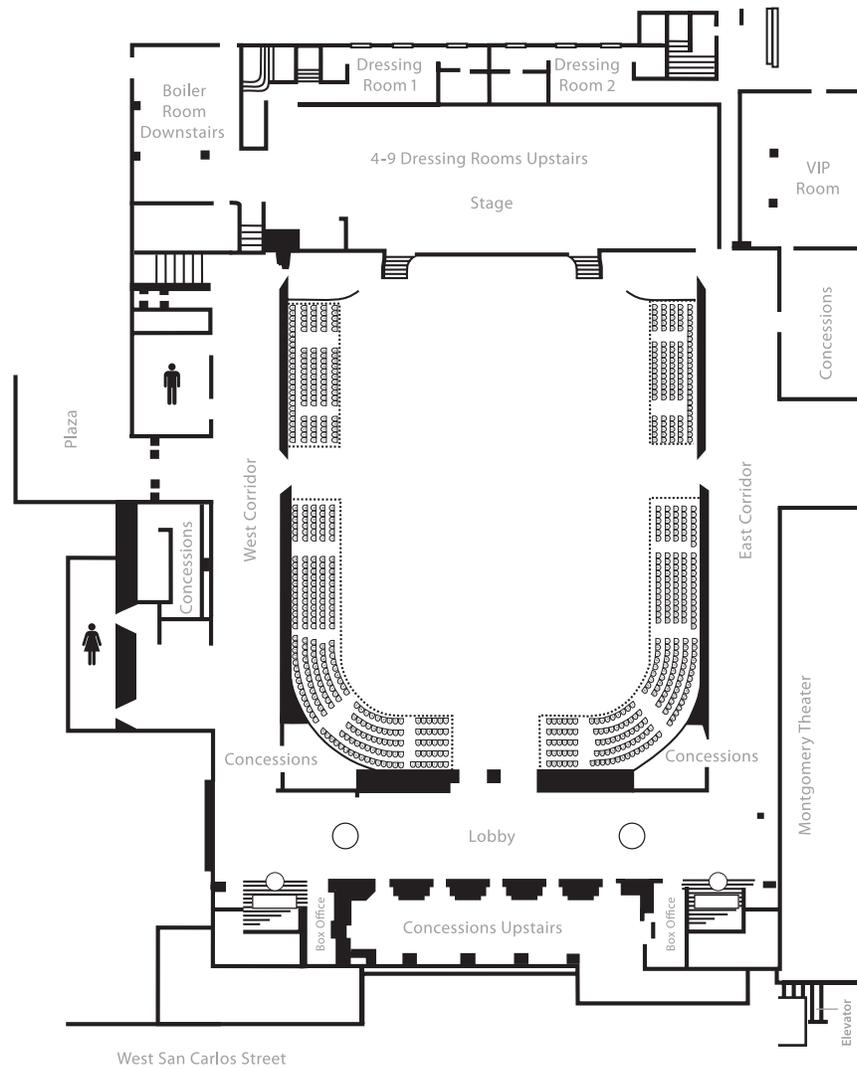

Built in 1934, the San Jose Civic has classic Spanish mission-style architecture and has been at the core of San Jose's cultural activity and traditions. Conveniently located in the heart of Downtown, it provides additional exhibit and general assembly space in conjunction with the nearby Convention Center and Parkside Hall.

The San Jose Civic is located within walking distance of hotels, bars, restaurants and museums. It is located directly across the street from a Light Rail station stop, allowing for convenient public transportation access. Parking is close by at the Convention Center as well as other Downtown lots.
